

2024 Myanmar Emerging Scholars and Young Leaders Workshop Call for Participation

The University of British Columbia's (UBC) Myanmar Initiative is delighted to invite applications for the 2024 Myanmar Emerging Scholars and Young Leaders Workshop. It is set to take place at UBC's campus in Vancouver, Canada, from May 15th to 17th, 2024. This workshop is designed to empower emerging scholars and young leaders from Myanmar, of Myanmar origin, or working on Myanmar. Participants will have the opportunity to strengthen their network, enhance their contributions to Myanmar's democratic development, and engage in meaningful collaboration and professional activities. This workshop is made possible through the generous support from the International Development Research Centre's (IDRC) Knowledge for Democracy Myanmar (K4DM) initiative.

Workshop Highlights:

- Networking opportunities with a diverse group of Myanmar scholars and researchers.
- Skills training tailored to foster professional growth.
- A platform to present research and gain valuable feedback from peers and experts.
- Financial support for travel and accommodation for workshop attendees.

Application Deadline:

Please submit your applications by February 28, 2024. The review of applications will begin on March 1, 2024.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Geared primarily to individuals currently enrolled in MA or PhD programs, with a preference for students at Canadian universities, though postdoctoral fellows and research affiliates are also encouraged to apply.
- A strong focus on research related to Myanmar, particularly projects aligned with the priorities of Global Affairs Canada and IDRC, including gender, vulnerable minorities, and the Rohingya community.
- We welcome applicants from all academic disciplines, with a particular interest in those from the social sciences and humanities.
- We highly encourage applications from women and members of vulnerable minorities.

Application Process:

To apply for the workshop, please fill out the online application form available <https://forms.gle/tdhW4z44hCxaC9UV9>. Ensure your application includes a brief description of your research project and how you believe the workshop will benefit your work and professional development.

About the UBC Myanmar Initiative:

Since 2017, the UBC Myanmar Initiative has been dedicated to supporting researchers and the democratization efforts in Myanmar. Our core mandate is to nurture an emerging generation of researchers committed to Myanmar's democratic development. This has been made possible through generous grants from IDRC's Knowledge for Democracy Myanmar (K4DM) initiative.
