

Freedom of Expression and Civil Liberties in Myanmar: Academic Freedom and Human Rights Education in Crisis

The Institute of Human Rights and Peace Studies, Mahidol University, in collaboration with the Center for Law and Democracy and the Pyin-Nya-Man-Daing Programme (PNMD) will host a special panel discussion and digital platform showcase of a political and social science academic and research programme that is applicable for conflict and post-conflict settings.

The panel of experts, including senior scholars and civil society activists will explore the current erosion of freedom of expression, civil liberties, and the impact on academic freedom in Myanmar.

You are cordially invited to join and participate in this event.

Your participation and discussion will contribute to meaningful discussions and valuable insights that support the academic freedom and pathway for educational change in Myanmar.
